2.1 The Contractor shall provide the Service:-

(a) in accordance with, and to the standards specified, in the Contract; and

(b) to the reasonable satisfaction of the Purchaser; and

(c) so as to meet any criteria for performance specified in the Contract or guaranteed by the Contractor.

2.2 If no such standards and/or criteria have been expressly specified or guaranteed then without prejudice to the remainder of the preceding sub-clause, the Contractor shall provide the Service to the standard and so as to meet the criteria that are indicated by, or may reasonably be inferred from, the Contract taking into account any relevant circumstances known to the Contractor at the time the Contract was made.

2.3 Time shall be of the essence in the provision of the Service.

3. Statutory and Local Regulations

3.1 The Contractor and his sub-contractors in carrying out the Contract shall conform at their own expense with all applicable legislative provisions and by-laws and Site Regulations and other regulations of the Purchaser particularly (but without limitation) those relating to safety. Before beginning the Service on the Site the Contractor shall

3.2 If and insofar as the Contractor operates as an employment agency or employment business in its dealings with the Contractor, the Contractor warrants that he will comply with the Employment Agencies Act 1973 and the Conduct of Employment Agencies and Employment Business Regulations 2003.

If, during the provision of the Service, the Purchaser gives notice in writing to the Contractor that the Purchaser is dissatisfied with any part of the Service on account of the same being improperly or unsoundly performed or on account of the Service not being performed in strict accordance with the Contract then the Contractor shall immediately perform that part of the Service in accordance with the Contract.

7. Assignment and Subcontracting

The Contractor shall not assign or subcontract the provision of the Service nor any part thereof without the prior approval of the Purchaser. Such approval must be obtained by the Contractor from the Purchaser in writing. All the Contractor's subcontracts shall contain a provision prohibiting any further subcontracts without the written consent of the Purchaser. Should the Contractor subcontract, he is fully responsible in all respects for any part of the Service provided by the sub-contractor as if he himself were undertaking the same and he shall bind the sub-contractor to observe these conditions and any other conditions incorporated in the Contract so far as the same are applicable to the subcontracted part of the Service.
8. Patent and other Protected Rights

The Contractor shall indemnify the Purchaser against actions, claims, demands, costs, charges and expenses arising from any infringement or alleged infringement of any Contractor's patent, registered design, trademark, copyright or other like right protected by law resulting from the provision of the Service.

9. Site Conditions

9.1
The Contractor shall be deemed to have informed and satisfied himself fully as to the nature and extent of the Service including (but not by way of limitation) the physical condition of, and around, the Site so far as is practicable and the necessity for the Service to be provided in accordance with Clause 2 above and therefore to have provided, unless expressly otherwise specified in the Contract, for all reasonably foreseeable eventualities in the agreed price for the Service.

9.2
The Contractor shall inform the Purchaser and confirm in writing any circumstances where delay and/or disruption in the provision of the Service may be expected due to those restrictions imposed by the operation of the business of the Purchaser in the vicinity of the area or place in which the Service is provided.

9.3
The Contractor will at his own expense provide everything necessary for carrying out the Contract and providing the Service except as otherwise agreed in writing. However, the Contractor may, with the prior written consent of the Purchaser, be permitted to use such supplies of electricity, water, gas and any other services as may from time to time be available from the Purchaser, but shall make reasonable payment therefore unless the Contract expressly provides otherwise. The Purchaser will not be liable for loss or damage caused by variations, cessation or diminution in pressure or quality or by the interruption, withdrawal or failure of such services. The Contractor shall at his own expense provide any apparatus and material necessary for utilising such services and shall be responsible for any loss or damage to persons or property caused by his use of them.

10. Variation Orders

10.1
The Contractor shall not vary, add to or omit any part of the Service, except as directed in writing by the Purchaser, but the Purchaser shall have full power from time to time during the term of the Contract by notice in writing to direct the Contractor to vary, add to or omit in any manner any part of the Service, and the Contractor shall carry out those variations and be bound by these Conditions, so far as applicable, as though those variations were stated in the Contract.

10.2

- (a) within 7 days whether in principle there should be an increase or decrease in the agreed price and/or time schedule for the Service, and
- (b) within 21 days of the amount of that increase or decrease of the agreed price and/or time schedule for the Service.

Within 10 working days from receiving Contractor's advise the Purchaser is entitled to withdraw his direction at no cost to him.

The amount of that increase or decrease shall be ascertained and determined in accordance with any rates specified in the Contract, so far as the same may be applicable, and, where rates are not contained in the Contract or are not applicable, such amount as shall be fair and reasonable in the circumstances.

The same will apply to change in the time schedule. Due account shall be taken to any part taken out from the Service by any variation. No increase of the Contract Price or time under this Clause 10.2 shall be made unless the Contractor shall have given the advice in writing referred to in this sub-clause within the time specified.

Contractor from or in fulfilling any of his obligations under the Contract he shall so notify the Purchaser in writing, and the Purchaser shall decide with all possible speed whether or not the same shall be carried out. If the Purchaser confirms his instructions in writing, those obligations shall be modified to such an extent as may be justified and agreed with the Purchaser. Until the Purchaser so confirms his instructions they shall be deemed not to have been given.

(a) employ other personnel and provide the Service or that part of the Service which the Contractor shall have neglected to provide or

(b) take the provision of the Service in whole or in part out of the Contractor’s hands and re-contract with any other person to provide the same.

11.3 In the event of Clause 11.2 applying the Purchaser shall for the unexpired term of the Contract have the free use of all Contractor’s Equipment without being responsible to the Contractor for fair wear and tear and to the exclusion of any right of the Contractor over the same.

11.4 The Purchaser shall be entitled to retain any sum which may otherwise be due to the Contractor and to apply that sum towards the payment of the cost of providing the Service or such part of the Service referred to in Clause 11.2. If the cost of doing this work shall exceed the sum retained, the Contractor shall pay the excess forthwith to the Purchaser.

12.2 In the event that a notice is issued pursuant to Clause 12.1 above the Purchaser shall pay to the Contractor the Contractor’s direct costs reasonably incurred in withdrawing the Service or the part of the Service so affected and in discharging any commitments reasonably entered into in order to provide the Service or such part of the Service.
